BUILD LONG-TERM, HIGH-VALUE REVENUE

How do partners make money selling Wholesale Mobile?

- Commercials on Wholesale Mobile work on a true wholesale model.
- Partners buy for X from Giacom and sell for Y to the customer.
- All tariffs are sold to the partner on 30-day terms, giving commercial flexibility and low-risk exposure.
- Partners have complete control of their own commercials and margins - meaning they can set their own pricing and onward contract terms.
- Partner manages the relationship, billing and cash collection and maintains ownership of the customer and future resign opportunities.

"The opportunity for building mobile services into your portfolio is vast. At Giacom, we strive to make it a simple and successful venture for our Channel partners."

Andrew Wilford, Managing Director - Mobile at Giacom

CONNECTION • COMMUNICATION • COLLABORATION

"Mobile is a high-margin and low-risk product that creates many opportunities for our resellers. It enables them to complement and enhance existing telecoms or Cloud portfolios, increase overall product penetration, and ultimately create loyal and sticky customers."

By partnering with Giacom, you can take advantage of our multi-award-winning mobile portfolio to accelerate the growth of your business."

Ricky Shock, Head of Mobile Services Portfolio at Giacom
